

FINANCIAL INTEGRITY STATEMENT

→ EDIFY

We are committed to EDIFYING the body of Christ by using all donations given to FCAP to bless others with the riches of God's Word and to spread the Gospel of Christ throughout the aviation workplace. Building one another up in the Word and in love is the foundation of everything we do. As Scripture reminds us, we are to "like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation" (1 Peter 2:2), and "We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves" (Romans 15:1). All Scripture is "breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16), equipping us thoroughly for every good work.

→ ENGAGE

We are committed to ENGAGING in the Great Commission of Christ (Matthew 28:19-20) in response to God's love for us. We believe that God will provide through His people connected to this ministry. We will let our needs be known without using manipulation to get donations, inviting open, honest connection with those He has placed in our path. As we engage, "Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person" (Colossians 4:6). We speak only "what is good for building up, that it may give grace to those who hear" (Ephesians 4:29), and we are "kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you" (Ephesians 4:32). By this love all people will know we are His disciples (John 13:34-35).

→ ENCOURAGE

We are committed to ENCOURAGING faithful stewardship by operating this ministry according to the principles outlined in God's Word. In doing so, we ask that people give to FCAP without neglecting their financial obligations to their family and local church, supporting one another as instruments of God's comfort and provision. Scripture calls us to "encourage one another and build one another up" (1 Thessalonians 5:11). Blessed be "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God" (2 Corinthians 1:3-4). Through this mutual encouragement we become channels of His mercy.

→ EXCITE

We are committed to EXCITING trust and joyful partnership by honoring privacy, refusing to release FCAP donor names or any information relating to their donations. Our hope is that this integrity fuels genuine excitement, energy, and enthusiasm for the Lord, drawing more people into a deeper relationship with God our Father. As we go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them and teaching them to observe all that Christ has commanded (Matthew 28:19-20), we trust that the ongoing process of edifying, engaging, and encouraging one another will create a level of excitement for the Lord that brings others not only to FCAP, but to a closer walk with Him.
